EU-US Conference on Long COVID

Tuesday 13 December 2022, 14.00 – 18.00 CET, Brussels time

Dear Colleague,

We would like to invite you to join an online conference on Long COVID including speakers and participants from the European Union and the United States of America.

This online conference will address current debates on the topic of Long COVID/Post-COVID-19 condition. It will bring together experts from medical, public health, and health economics disciplines as well as representatives of patient organisations and policy-makers.

The core purpose of the conference is to shed light on perspectives on addressing Long COVID in the EU and USA. For this purpose, this invitation is intended for stakeholders and wider audiences in both the EU and USA.

We invite you to register here to join this online conference via a live stream:
